

Have you ever thought about starting anew in Obanazawa City? How would you respond to this question? Perhaps you are unsure, but after hearing about it, you'll want to say "YES!"

I would like to introduce you to Obanazawa City, where I live.

First, let me tell you about Ginzan. Ginzan is a hot spring resort nestled in breathtaking natural surroundings. The cityscape here transports you back to the Taisho era, offering a perfect blend of history and serenity. It's a place where you can fully blend yourself in the beauty of nature. In addition, you can stay at a tourist inn and enjoy local food specialties. It's a perfect place to unwind and enjoy!

Next, there's Lake Tokura. It's a beautiful lake surrounded by nature. There are walking trails and campsites where you can enjoy nature walks, fishing, and boating with your family and friends. A moment at Lake Tokura will be a relaxing time while interacting with nature.

Now, let me tell you about Hanagasa Odori. Every year in Obanazawa City, there's a traditional dance festival called Hanagasa Odori. It is characterized by the “spinning umbrellas” where participants vigorously and dynamically rotate the umbrellas. The lively dance fascinates the viewers, showcasing the locals’ dedication to keeping this tradition alive. It is a great opportunity to feel the charm of Obanazawa!

Obanazawa is also famous for its watermelon production. Obanazawa watermelon has exquisite sweetness and juiciness, perfect for soothing the fatigue of the hot summer! You can even visit a local farm to learn how they grow watermelons and experience harvesting them yourself. It's a great way to learn about farming and experience the warmth of the local farmers.

Also, marbled wagyu beef is one of the prides of Obanazawa. The beef is tender, marbled, and has a rich taste. This delicious meat is nurtured in Obanazawa's beautiful natural environment. While savoring the hearty and delicious marbled Wagyu beef, be sure to fully enjoy the delightful flavors of Obanazawa.

Above all, the people of Obanazawa are warm and hospitable. As you immerse yourself in the local community, you'll make new friends and meaningful connections.

It is a new experience and a wonderful memory of a trip. Whether you're looking for a new adventure or even considering moving here, Obanazawa has so much to offer—from its natural beauty to its rich culture and the warmth of the people. If you're thinking about moving, we're here to help and to welcome you to your new home.
